Agreement & Policies

Please read and sign below to accept this agreement as part of your membership application.

Site License

Wealth Strategies Inventory™ is sold as a site license for a one-time member initiation fee and monthly maintenance and support dues renewable on an annual basis. A site license is comprised of one firm at one office location.

Initial memberships must commit to one year or 12 monthly payments. Separate satellite office(s) will incur additional monthly dues but are not required to pay separate membership initiation fees. A home office computer or laptop computer for the same firm are not considered separate satellite office(s) and additional monthly dues are not required.

All other Advisors Forum products and services are provided for the individual member's use only (or use with a co-presenter in the case of the Advisors Forum Presents™ Continuing Education Packages) and not via site license, unless expressly provided otherwise; e.g., monthly teleconferences and newsletters.

Maintenance & Support Dues

The maintenance and support dues include unlimited software support by toll free telephone or email. Dues also include access to The Advisors Forum's Knowledge Base, an online file storage area containing numerous helpful resources for alternative PowerPoint presentations, letters, etc. Subscription includes all regular updates.

30-Day Refund Guarantee

The Advisors Forum provides a 30-day refund policy to new members. Should a new member decide to return all Advisors Forum products within 30 days, The Advisors Forum will fully refund the initial membership fee and any monthly fees paid before the return, plus any obligation for future monthly payments will be cancelled. This is conditioned on a return of all Advisors Forum software and the acknowledgment of The Advisors Forum Copyright for which all rights are reserved and no part may be reproduced or used in any form or by any means, electronic or mechanical, including photocopying, recording, or by any information or retrieval system.

90 Day Temporary Suspension for Initiation Fees

Should a member require a temporary suspension of membership and monthly dues for any reason, The Advisors Forum will grant that request and will not require an additional membership initiation fee when the member resumes membership within 90 days or after no more than 3 monthly payments are skipped. After 90 days or if 4 or more monthly payments are missed, a member may resume membership upon agreement to pay the then-current membership fees.
